2024 MOUNTAIN WEST VETERINARY CONFERENCE SPEAKERS

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Morgan McArthur, DVM

University of Wisconsin Extension - New Berlin, WI

Dr. Morgan McArthur: Veterinarian. Connector. Speaker. Worm enthusiast. Artist. Auctioneer. His veterinary journey has been interesting, unconventional and rewarding. After graduating from Iowa State University with a DVM in 1983, Morgan came to Idaho. He practiced in Salmon for a short time and then relocated to Idaho Falls where he was a large animal practitioner until 1996. He got involved with a Toastmasters club in Idaho Falls because of a fear of public speaking. The organization created a monster. Propelled by a story that came out of veterinary practice, Morgan delivered a speech that won the World Championship of Public Speaking in 1994. Today Morgan plies his observational and communication skills as an educator for the University of Wisconsin Extension. He abides by the motto "If it isn't fun, it shouldn't be done!" He's thrilled to be returning to Idaho Falls!
